

Situation Is Not Bad

MATAMOROS, Mexico (AP) — Dykes Askew Simmons Jr., an American held in a Mexican prison under a death sentence for almost nine years is not "in a particularly bad situation," U.S. Ambassador to Mexico Fulton Freeman said Thursday.

Simmons, 38, has been jailed in Mexico since 1959 when he was arrested in connection with the slayings of three members of a Monterrey, Mexico, physician's family.

Freeman said there is no possibility that Simmons will be executed. He said he believes the death sentence will be commuted soon.

Proposals to Offset Loss of Exemption

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The tentative draft of proposed legislation that could offset some of the effect of the loss of the tax-exempt feature of municipal industrial development bonds was approved Thursday by the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

Richard A. DuVall, assistant director of the commission, said the legislation includes several features which are needed. Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller will be asked to introduce the legislation at a special legislative session in May.

DuVall said the legislation is particularly needed because the U.S. Treasury Department recently removed municipal industrial bonds from the tax-exempt category.

DuVall said the most important feature of the legislation is a proposal to allow the removal of a restriction against applying first-mortgage loans to the purchase of machinery and equipment through local industrial development corporations.

He said that at least a dozen companies had to abandon their expansion plans or try other methods during the past year because of the restriction.

U. S. Presidents — According to a ruling of the State Department, Lyndon B. Johnson is the 36th president. Grover Cleveland is counted twice, as the 22nd and 24th president, because his two terms were not consecutive. Only 35 individuals have held the office.

Nixon Hits Campaigning of His Foes

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has accused Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and President Johnson of raucous, irresponsible campaigning. But he had a kind word for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, the on-the-scene Democrat who could knife into his Republican vote in Wisconsin's wide-open presidential primary.

And the proxy campaign for Johnson rolled on in the nation's second presidential primary.

That was the scene in a Wisconsin puzzle compounded by the fact that when the polls open next Tuesday, a voter can choose the ballot of either party.

Nixon men are concerned lest the lack of a real contest in the Republican primary lead vast numbers of normally GOP voters to switch and cast Democratic ballots.

While he campaigned in Wisconsin, Nixon talked nationally, in a recorded radio address which criticized the campaign style of both Kennedy and Johnson.

"Never have we more needed an intelligent, rational and dispassionate discussion of the great issues," he said. "And yet seldom has debate been more raucous or more irresponsible."

"Sen. Kennedy accused his fellow Democrat, President Johnson, of calling upon the darker impulses of the American spirit," the former vice president said. "The President and his supporters too often respond in kind by savage attacks on the motives of his critics."

It was in this contest that Nixon mentioned McCarthy. "We need to restore to our political dialogue the sense . . . that the processes of democracy still are effective, even for dealing with the complexities of the modern day," he said. "I share the view of those who say that Sen. McCarthy's campaign has contributed significantly to this goal, that his enlistment of the enthusiasm, the energy and the faith of many who had given up on the political process is a step toward the restoration of that process itself to the place it deserves."

But he quickly added that it is not enough to focus dissent.

Rioting and Looting in Panama

PANAMA (AP) — A riot Thursday night with tear gas and gunshots after a silent protest by 2,000 women was the latest episode in a complex story here. The main elements are two claimants to the presidency, a restive national guard and a decisive Supreme Court session starting Monday.

The women's "march of mourning" protested the arrests of opposition party members in the presidential crisis. It led to rioting and looting. National guard troops broke up the fray with tear gas and shots fired in the air.

Funds Cut for Costly F111 Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — The ill-starred F111 has suffered major setbacks on two fronts—a powerful congressional committee has denied further funds for building a Navy model of the swing-wing jet and one of the first A-1 Force models to see service in Vietnam is reported missing.

The Senate Armed Services Committee voted 11 to 2 Thursday to exclude from the defense budget $460 million that had been requested for research and development on the F111B, the Navy version.

Meanwhile an F111A—the Air Force version of what is basically the same plane—is reported by defense officials "overdue on a mission in Southeast Asia." The plane was in the first six-plane contingent of F111A sent to the war zone, arriving on station only last Sunday.

The North Vietnamese reported today the plane was shot down in Ha Tinh Province, some 100 miles above the Demilitarized Zone. U.S. officials are concerned the wreckage, if the North Vietnamese claim is true, may yield valuable secrets.

On Capitol Hill Thursday, the focus was on the F111B. While he was Secretary of defense, Robert S. McNamara promoted the idea of a single aircraft that could be modified for use by both services, but Navy top brass have made it plain they don't like the F111B.

The complaint most often heard was that for a carrier-based plane the F111B at 80,000 pounds was too heavy by about 20,000 pounds.

Nunn Talks for Revising Constitution

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — Walter H. Nunn, director of the Interim Constitutional Convention Advisory Commission, said Thursday that the drafting of a new Constitution would "symbolize Arkansas moving from the bottom ranks of the constitutional government to the top."

He said the present Constitution, which was drafted in 1874, had been aimed at the corruption of post-Civil War "carpet-bagger" officials.

"As the role of government began to change and the nature of Arkansas began to alter in the 1900s, the difficulties of operating under a 'thou shalt not' constitution became apparent," Nunn told a Crossett civic club.

Nunn said a new constitution is needed because of the "need for modern and effective government" and the need "to assume state responsibilities."

Israel Sends Planes Over Jordan Area

By ED BLANCHE
Associated Press Writer
TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli jets, screaming over Jordan for the second time in two weeks, dive-bombed artillery nests today while big gun and mortar battles spread 65 miles along the Jordan River from Calilee to ancient Jericho on the Dead Sea, an army spokesman said.

Jordan claimed it shot down three French-made Israeli fighter bombers and destroyed tanks, armored cars and artillery emplacements in four hours of fighting. The planes crashed into Israeli territory, the Jordanian report said.

Army communiques broadcast by Amman radio made no mention of hand-to-hand fighting such as that eight days ago when Israeli troops, 15,000 strong by Arab estimate, invaded Jordan to wipe out terrorist staging bases.

There was no immediate report of casualties from either side.

A guerrilla mine blast that killed four Israelis and wounded an American volunteer preceded the Jordanian machine-gun and artillery attacks that led to the jet raid, the Israelis said. The Jordanian army claimed the Israelis opened fire first with mortars and field guns on the village of Um Kais, then later hit Karamah, the site of a main Al Fatah guerrilla staging center.

A dispatch from Massada in Israeli territory about 50 miles from Tel Aviv, said the Jordanians had hit a farm there with about 50 artillery rounds and fire from 120mm and 81mm mortars.

Two File for Re-election

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. James H. Roberts, 36, of Truman and Rep. W. E. "Gene" Rainwater, 43, of Fort Smith filed Thursday for re-election to the Arkansas House.

Rainwater is seeking Pos. 4 in District 12, which is Sebastian and Crawford counties. Roberts is seeking Pos. 2 in District 17, which is Polk and Poinsett counties.

Says Brother Is Better as Administrator

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas said Thursday that his brother has had "more administrative experience" than former Vice President Richard M. Nixon but that he would be "delighted" to support Nixon if he wins the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller said he favored his brother, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller for the nomination and called him a "proven winner."

Rockefeller, who was here to address a $125-a-plate GOP fund-raising dinner, also praised Gov. Ronald Reagan of California but said he did not know whether Reagan would accept the vice presidential nomination.

The Arkansas governor also said that if President Johnson were renominated he would be difficult to defeat.

Rockefeller denied that he would meet with Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes to "make a political pitch." Rhodes reportedly favors Nelson Rockefeller for the nomination. Rockefeller said he would meet with Rhodes to "exchange any ideas."

PARIS-BOUND will be Sargent Shriver, left, named by President Johnson to be ambassador to France. Shriver was the first director of the Peace Corps and headed the Office of Economic Opportunity since 1964. • Wilbur J. Cohen, center, was named as Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, filling the post vacated by John W. Gardner. • Speculation is rife that Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, right, will be named commander of American forces in Vietnam to succeed Gen. William C. Westmoreland, who was promoted to Army chief of staff.

press, arrived at Ta Khil air base in Thailand March 17 and a flight of them, presumably four, made their first combat missions Monday.

Their mission Thursday, aimed at truck parks and storage areas 24 to 29 miles northwest of Dong Hoi in the North Vietnam's southern panhandle, was the fourth since they arrived in the combat zone.

The U.S. spokesman said he had no reports of any enemy action against the F111s in the raids near Dong Hoi Thursday night. He said no MIG interceptors engaged them and they did not draw surface-to-air missiles or antiaircraft fire.

The day before, he said, North Vietnamese ground troops fired on a flight of F111s but did no damage.

If the loss of the F111 is confirmed, it will be the 815th U.S.

warplane downed in more than three years of bombing of North Vietnam.

There was no indication the planes would be grounded because of the loss of one. One source said he was almost certain the F111s were back in action over North Vietnam today, although operational reports had not yet reached Saigon.

The Lubbock, Tex., Advance Journal reported that the Pentagon had notified the parents of Capt. Dennis L. Graham, 26, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Graham, that he was one of the two crewmen aboard the missing plane.

Word of the loss of the plane came out in a terse announcement from the headquarters of Gen. William C. Westmoreland: "An F111A has been declared overdue on a mission. For security reasons, no other details will be made available at this time."

Since their arrival the F111s have been assigned secondary targets in the southern panhandle rather than in the heartland where the enemy's defenses are much tougher.

Pilots are likely to face less antiaircraft fire, surface-to-air missiles and MIG interceptors in the panhandle. The idea was to break the F111s in gradually on the lesser targets.

Elsewhere, North Vietnamese gunners shot down another U.S. helicopter at Khe Sanh. A Marine CH46 Sea King night was downed by enemy automatic weapons fire a mile southeast of Hill 881, one of the strongpoints that flanks the main combat base.

The crew, believed to be four men, was rescued. There were no passengers reported aboard the helicopter. The helicopter was reported heavily damaged.

Enemy gunners pumped fewer than 200 rounds of artillery, mortars and rockets into the Khe Sanh combat base Thursday. U.S. casualties were said to be light.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Captain Kirk, the brave imperturbable commander of the space ship Enterprise, has some pretty hair-raising experiences on alien planets every week in "Star Trek."

But never, on any distant star visited by the ship and its crew during two years, going on three, has Captain Kirk been in danger of having his turtle-neck uniform torn off by welcoming natives.

That, however, was the experience of William Shatner, the former Shakespearean and Broadway actor who plays the lead in the series, when he tried to leave NBC's Manhattan headquarters earlier this week. Shatner, more nervous when confronted with eager earthlings than with the worst monsters dreamed up by a Hollywood studio special effects department, managed to escape with nothing more drastic than some ripped seams in his sports jacket.

The Enterprise and its galaxy-cruising crew have recently come through a rough ordeal. Several months ago, the word got around that NBC would cancel the science-fiction series at the end of the season. NBC never said so, but the show's Nielsen ratings were not even close to those of "The Flying Nun" and "The Andy Griffith Show."

The show's fans set out to save it. The network alone received more than 80,000 letters. Fan magazines and columnists were flooded with anguishes appeals to help save the Enterprise. Network headquarters on both coasts were picketed. "I honestly did not think we'd pull through to a third season," confessed Shatner. "I was, in fact, so sure we were to be canceled that I had a film script written from a book I'd bought. I was pretty certain that my future, if any, was in movies and in the theater."

Shatner and other members of the cast learned along with the general public that NBC had decided to renew the series for next season. "I heard it on the radio," said the star of the show.

"After a couple of seasons together, the casts of a lot of TV series get bored and restless," he said. "They take it out by complaining and fighting among themselves. The (Star Trek) cast has never become bored—we all are proud of the show and we liked our work. I know we were all glad it was renewed."

NBC, like the other two networks, is not likely to be swayed by viewer mail in making programming decisions. But "Star Trek" was special. Much of the mail came from doctors, scientists, teachers and other professional people, and was for the most part literate—and written on good stationery. And if there is anything a network wants almost as much as a high Nielsen rating it is the prestige of a show that appeals to the upper middle class and high brow audiences.

So Star Trek was saved and production for next season's shows starts up in May.

Yule Note Was Received

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — With unseasonable temperatures in the 80s, a Christmas thank you note arrived in Annapolis from 9-year-old Timmy Gearhart of Donegal, Pa.

To Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson, his Aunt and Uncle, he wrote: "I got your present and opened it. I looked at it in surprise. I needed a watch very bad, I had one but I lost it."

The thank-you, which arrived Thursday, was dated Dec. 27, 1967. A handwritten postscript noted: "I thought the letter was mailed but it wasn't."

Church Drive Climax Will Be Sunday

The Liberty Baptist Church, on California off Rosston Road, will have "Put Liberty in the Picture" Sunday during its Sunday School to bring to a conclusion the "March to Sunday School in March" attendance drive.

A large picture of the church has been cut into pieces and mailed to members and friends. They must bring their portions of the picture with them to Sunday School so that the entire picture may be reconstructed. The attendance goal for the day is 80. (The average attendance last year was only 31.) Attendance for the month so far is well over 200 per cent above the attendance last year.

A feature of the morning service will be a special musical number directed by Tom Harwell.

Barney Starkey is superintendent of the Liberty Sunday School. Kenneth Bazar is pastor.

Final Rites for Soviet Space Hero

By HENRY BRADSHAW Associated Press Writer MOSCOW (AP) — The top three Soviet leaders stood under a gray Moscow sky today as an honor guard by the ashes of Russia's first hero of the space age, Yuri A. Gagarin.

Thousands of sorrowing Russians filed past the urns containing the ashes of Gagarin and Soviet Air Force Col. Vladimir S. Seryogin. The two cosmonauts were killed in the crash of a MIG trainer Thursday.

Communist party General Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, President Nikolai V. Podgorny and other Soviet leaders stood in silent tribute as the first honor guard.

Gagarin's widow, Valentina, 33, shook with sobs under her mourning veil as she approached the urns in the black-draped Central House of the Soviet Army. Gagarin's daughters, Lena, 9, and Galya, 7, were also crying.

After a funeral Saturday Gagarin's and Seryogin's ashes will be placed in the most honorable spot in the Soviet Union, the Kremlin Wall facing Red Square.

From an obscure childhood on a collective farm, Gagarin rose to top graduate of an aviation cadet school and became the first man to orbit the earth in his historic Vostok flight April 12, 1961.

Moscow newspapers published large portraits of the 34-year-old Gagarin on their front pages, and other portraits of him and Seryogin, who was 46, with obituaries on inside pages.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

CREDIBILITY GAP

Dear Helen: Our daughter became engaged to a man who rents the upstairs apartment. Then things began to happen. His wife and child came to see him about separate maintenance payments which were long overdue. Not finding him at home, the woman told me her troubles. Even if I discounted three fourths of them, I'd still be shook.

After first denying that he had a wife, the man finally admitted he was getting a divorce, but final papers are delayed until he catches up with his support payments.

I'm discovering more about him all the time. His creditors are closing in. The longest he has had a job is three months. He always says he leaves to take better employment. Mostly, he's been fired!

But with all this proof, our daughter, a usually sensible girl, still won't give back the engagement ring. She insists people misjudge him. She's under age and we won't sign the papers. Also, he isn't free to marry, so time — and her strong moral principles are on our side. How do we convince her of his credibility gap?

MOTHER OF ANOTHER BLIND DAUGHTER

Dear Mother: Your daughter has a credibility gap — between the ears: A common affliction of girls in love. With time working for you, well, relax and let it work. A normal sensible girl doesn't stay blind forever. You'll see. — H

Dear Helen: We have a neighbor who can come straight from the store and then borrow from me before she can cook dinner. Several times she has paid back, then borrowed it back before she left. Often she never returns the stuff or, if she does, it's always a much inferior brand and lots cheaper — something we dislike and would never use.

I've tried telling her to hop in my car — I'll take her back to the store so she can get what she forgot, but she doesn't catch on; just says, "Oh, I haven't time for THAT!" Money isn't the problem — she's loaded.

What turns me is I hardly ever borrow, and the few times I try, she's out of what I need. Frankly, we're rather tired of being her next door supermarket, without charge. In fact, I'm tired of her. — BORED WITH A DISORGANIZED NEIGHBOR

Dear Bored: Look Mrs. Scatterbrain straight in the eye and say, "It's time you learned how to shop!" Then show her how YOU keep day-to-day grocery lists, and always plan meals before you leave for the market. This will accomplish one of two things: She'll either become a better neighbor, or an ex-friend you won't really miss. Either way, you've won the battle of the borrower. — H

Dear Helen: Throughout our married life my husband has spent his free time on sports, either watching them on TV, or out with his buddies. He has his own interests. I'm not part of them.

This is not a complaint. I'm used to it. Here's my gripe: The few times he DOES notice he has a wife, he's mad if I don't act happy and gay. I'm happy enough, but not gay. I've lost the habit of talking. Somewhere it went out of me, after those years of being alone or getting "shushed" so he could hear TV.

I like my husband well enough. I'm not mad. I'll cook and clean and be his wife. How can I get it across that I'm silent because I'm used to silence. All I want is to be left alone. — ACCUSTOMED

Dear Accustomed: That isn't true and you know it! You want sharing, loving companionship, but you're so hung up with bitterness and hurt you won't try any more. You won't even fight — and this is the most hopeless kind of marriage-drift. You're drowning in self-pity and you won't try to swim. — H

Kaat's Elbow Grave Loss to Twins

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
The California Angels and Baltimore Orioles have had their wings clipped but Jim Kaat's elbow trouble has thrown the Minnesota Twins for a big loss.

San Francisco unleashed a 22-hit barrage against four California pitchers Thursday and rolled to an 18-3 exhibition baseball triumph over the Angels at Phoenix, Ariz.

The Orioles were shut out for the second time in a row, bowing 2-0 to Washington at Miami, Fla., as Camillo Pascual and Bill Denney combined for a five-hit-ter.

Kaat, Minnesota's southpaw pitching ace, flew from Orlando, Fla., to the Twin Cities Thursday night to being a series of X-ray treatments on his ailing left elbow, injured in the next-to-last game of the 1967 season.

Elsewhere on the exhibition schedule, St. Louis trimmed Oakland 3-1, Cincinnati nipped Detroit 4-3 in 14 innings, Pittsburgh topped Houston 3-1, Los Angeles drubbed the Chicago White Sox 11-4, the New York Yankees downed the New York Mets 5-1, the Chicago Cubs edged Cleveland 5-3 and Philadelphia shaded Atlanta 4-2.

Jim Davenport lashed four hits, including a triple, as the Giants cuffed Ricky Clark for eight runs and 14 hits in five innings and completed the assault against Minnie Rojas, Jack Hamilton and Jim Weaver.

Pascual, who allowed four hits in six innings, and Denney hurled the Senators to their 12th victory in 17 spring starts. The Orioles have scored just one unearned run in the last 30 innings.

"Kaat, who ruptured a muscle in his elbow at Boston last Sept. 30, could be sidelined for some time because of an irritated nerve. 'We expect the X-ray treatments to be helpful,' said Dr. Harvey O'Phelan, the Twins' team physician. 'No one really knows.'"

"Our present plan is to put him on the disabled list at the start of the season."

Another ailing player, Atlanta outfielder Rico Carty, is undergoing tests in a Louisiana, Fla., hospital to determine if he has tuberculosis. He was reported "feeling fine and walking around" Thursday but asked that details of his confinement not be released.

Lou Brock socked a run-scoring triple and tallied on a throwing error by shortstop Ted Kubiak, giving the Cardinals the edge at Bradenton, Fla. Nelson Briles stopped the A's on five hits over the first seven innings.

At Tampa, Fla., the Reds pushed over the winning run on Don Werth's bases-loaded error in the 14th and matched St. Louis' 13-6 exhibition mark.

Fireballer Bob Veale yielded four hits and struck out seven in a strong six-inning stint as the Pirates stopped the Astros at Cocoa, Fla.

Ron Fairly's three-run double keyed a 14-hit attack that carried the Dodgers past the White Sox in a night game at Vero Beach, Fla.

Nothing Like Home Court, Team Vow

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ask the Philadelphia Flyers and the Philadelphia 76ers what they think about playing again in the Spectrum Sports Arena, you'll get one chorus: It sure is good to be home.

"There's nothing like playing in Philadelphia," President Bill Putnam of the National Hockey League Flyers said Thursday after the city announced the Spectrum would be open for business next week — new top and all.

"No doubt we'd like to be back at the Spectrum," said Bob Vetrone, public relations representative of the National Basketball Association 76ers, who have played on three different home courts this year.

Pan American Beats Arkansas

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Johnny Guzman scattered seven hits as Pan American racked up its sixth straight victory over Arkansas.

Guzman is unbeaten for the season. Herb House was the losing pitcher. Pan American is 11-4 for the season.

The 14th and matched St. Louis' 13-6 exhibition mark.

Fireballer Bob Veale yielded four hits and struck out seven in a strong six-inning stint as the Pirates stopped the Astros at Cocoa, Fla.

Warriors, Lakers Can Hike Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The San Francisco Warriors and Los Angeles Lakers will be looking to stretch their National Basketball Association playoff advantage to 3-1 tonight. Meanwhile, the Minnesota Muskies will try to wrap up their semifinal victory over Kentucky in the American Basketball Association.

The Warriors, surprisingly a game up on the St. Louis Hawks in the NBA's Western Division playoffs, entertain the Hawks in Oakland.

The Muskies, not surprisingly ahead of the Chicago Bulls 2-1 in the West's other playoff, meet the Bulls in Chicago.

The Muskies can end their series with Kentucky in the ABA's Eastern Division with another victory. Minnesota is ahead 2-1 and the semifinals in the ABA are best-of-5. In the NBA, it's best-of-7.

In the only pro basketball playoff action Thursday night, the Boston Celtics evened their series with the Detroit Pistons at two games each by winning 135-110 at Detroit.

The Warriors' lead over the Hawks is even more surprising for the fact that it was gained without the services of Nate Thurmond, the big center who is out with injuries, and several other key players.

Paul Silas of the Hawks, admitting the Warriors are "better than we expected," says he is "confident the Hawks will come back." St. Louis beat San Francisco in seven of their eight meetings during the regular season.

Bill Russell sparked a third-quarter rally, bringing the Celtics past the Pistons, who were threatening to continue their newly found mastery over Boston. Detroit led 60-55 at the half, but Russell led the Celtics to an 80-point second half.

John Havlicek had 35 points for Boston while Dave Bing led Detroit with 26. The series resumes Sunday in Boston.

Rojas Rallies for Victory Over Higgins

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's Raul Rojas rallied in two violent rounds, the 12th and 15th, and won a unanimous decision over Enrique Higgins of Colombia Thursday night to win the World Boxing Association featherweight championship.

Rojas, 126, San Pedro, Calif., had Higgins, 125½, Bogota, Colombia, on the verge of a knockout in the two crucial rounds before a capacity crowd of 10,400 at the Olympic Auditorium—a crowd which paid $64,381.

The decision was widely acclaimed by the partisan Rojas following but there were those who felt that Higgins, a master at jabbing and boxing had earned the decision.

While the WBA, which includes California, sanctioned the fight, to fill the vacancy caused when Mexico's Vicente Saldivar retired last October, there are other areas in the world which did not extend the recognition.

Referee Dick Young scored it 11-6, judge John Thomas had it 10-5 and judge George Latka scored 10-6. California's scoring is one or more points to the winner of a round, none for the loser and none for an even round.

The Associated Press scored it 8-6 for Higgins.

The victory was the 34th for Rojas. His only defeat was a 15-round knockout by Saldivar in Los Angeles, May 7, 1965. It was the third defeat in 33 fights for Higgins.

Victory Is Assured for Killy

ROSSLAND, B.C. (AP) — With victory virtually assured, Jean Claude Killy of France can afford to be casual about the race today in which he can clinch his second World Cup ski title.

"I just arrived here," he said Thursday night. "I don't know who's racing against me. I haven't looked at the course at all yet. . . I won't practice before the slalom but I don't mind."

Killy has 136 points in World Cup standings and the only way he could lose would be if Gerhard Nienning of Austria wins his next four races at Red Mountain meet here or at Heavenly Valley, Calif., April 6-7.

Killy's French ski team coaches dismissed Nienning's chances and named American skier Rick Chaffee, 23, as a threat in the slalom today, second day of the four-day Red Mountain international meet.

Coaches expected fewer disqualifications and falls in the men's event than there were in the women's slalom Thursday, won by Marielle Goitschel, a French ski team star since 1962.

Twenty women were disqualified and 12 others, including Canadian Nancy Greene of Rossland, defending world women's champion, fell and did not finish the race over two tough courses. Miss Greene wrenched her right ankle.

The U.S. women's team Thursday lost Cathy Nagel, 19, of Enumclaw, Wash., suffering bleeding in a hip joint after a slalom fall. It was not known how long she would be out of action.

But the team had some consolation. Kiki Cutter, 18, of Bend, Ore., was third in the slalom in 92.52 seconds and Wendy Allen, 23, of San Pedro, Calif., was fourth in 92.60.

Records Are Smashed in Swim Meet

By LARRY ELDRIDGE

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Indiana's perennial bridesmaids don't want to wait any longer for the NCAA Swimming Championship. Judging from their impressive opening day performance, they may not have to.

"We've been working all year for this," said an elated Charlie Hickcox after smashing the American record for the second time in one day Thursday while leading a 1-2 Hoosier finish in the 200-yard individual medley.

Sanders Is Heading the Field

By F. T. MACFEELEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — If Doug Sanders doesn't win the Masters Golf Tournament in April, his next big goal will be the British Open in mid-July.

It's not that he isn't planning to press his one-stroke advantage over the field in today's second round of the Greater Jacksonville Open. But Sanders has won it before and he knows another prestige victory would establish him among the elite of the game.

"The British Open to me could excel the big American tournaments such as the Masters, U.S. Open and PGA," Sanders said. "I have business interests in the British Empire, and I figure the British Open would mean half a million dollars more to me than any of the three major tournaments in the United States."

Sanders headed the pack with a seven-under-par 65 into the second round of the $100,000. He shot an easy eagle—two wood shots and a two-foot putt—and five birdies in Thursday's opening round.

Five challengers were one stroke behind him and 60 others broke par 72 on the 7,221-yard Deerwood Club course.

Steve Reid, Al Gelberger, Gardner Dickinson, Dewitt Weaver Jr. and Julius Boros were at 66. Don January, Richard Martinez, Chi-Chi Rodriguez and Bobby Nichols were at 67.

Defending champ Dan Sikes was among a dozen at 68 after an erratic round including an eagle, three birdies and a bogey.

Gary Player at 69 and Arnold Palmer at 70 were in the running, but Jack Nicklaus at 74 faced the necessity of a good second round to make the cut for the final 36 holes Saturday and Sunday.

Charges San Diego Slipped Hayes Money

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Mavericks of the young American Basketball Association charged Thursday that the San Diego Rockets of the NBA slipped "at least $5,000" to University of Houston superstar Elvin Hayes while he still was playing college ball.

The 6-9½ Hayes, college player of the year, signed with San Diego of the National Basketball Association Wednesday for an estimated $440,000 over four years.

Hayes said he would hold a news conference today.

T. C. Morrow, president of the Mavericks, held a news conference Thursday to declare — among other things — "all-out war" against the NBA over the Hayes signing.

Morrow said the Mavericks still would give Hayes $750,000 for three years.

Morrow said at least $5,000 went to Hayes from the Rockets 30 days ago.

Both Walter Kennedy, commissioner of the NBA, and Rockets president Robert Breitbard denied any such payment.

Hayes was contacted in Schenectady, N.Y., Thursday night and withheld any comment, save to say he would hold a news conference this afternoon.

Discounts to Athletes Under Probe

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Bill Reed of Chicago, Big Ten Conference athletic commissioner, said he is unconvinced that discounts reportedly given Michigan U. athletes by local merchants are in violation of a conference rule.

The campus newspaper, the Michigan Daily, reported Thursday that he does not wish to classify the discounts as violations unless the athletic directors vote to do so.

Big Ten athletic directors are scheduled to discuss the report of discounts at a meeting.

Big Ten athletic directors are scheduled to discuss the report of discounts at a meeting May 14-18 in Minneapolis, Minn.

The Michigan Daily triggered an investigation in February, into possible rule infractions when it reported that athletes at Michigan were given discounts from local men's stores and local restaurants.

The paper also said that athletes at Michigan State University were given free meals in a university snack bar and also free phone calls.

Nancy Richey Welcomes the Match

NEW YORK (AP) — "I welcome the match—I think I have a good chance to win."

That was the gauntlet thrown down by Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., today as she prepared to challenge Billie Jean King's position as queen of women's tennis.

Intense rivals for national honors for nine years, America's No. 1 and No. 2 ranked players meet tonight in the semifinals of the Garden Challenge Cup International Tournament. It is their first head-to-head meeting since 1964.

Three other semifinal matches are scheduled tonight in the new Madison Square Garden to determine tests for titles Saturday night.

The other women's match sends second-seeded Ann Haydon Jones, a 10-year British Wightman Cup veteran, against tough Judy Tegart of Australia.

Arthur Ashe of West Point, N.Y., upset winner over Spain's Manuel Santana, plays Davis Cup teammate Clark Graebner of New York and top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia faces 21-year-old Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif.

Gypsy Ben Is Shooting for Third Win

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Don May, who led the Dayton Flyers to the National Invitation Tournament championship, has withdrawn from the Olympic basketball team tryouts, citing physical exhaustion.

He is the latest of several basketball stars to skip the Olympics in Mexico City next fall.

"I didn't feel that I could perform at my best during the tryouts and consequently I thought it would be in the best interests of everyone concerned if I were to eliminate myself from the competition," the 6-foot-4 forward said.

May spent Monday at the Olympic tryouts in Indianapolis, Ind., but says he doesn't intend to return. He said he hopes to play pro basketball, but added that that has nothing to do with his quitting the Olympic trials.

Gypsy Ben is expected to go off as first choice again today when he will carry 114 pounds, including Arthur Anderson who has been his regular rider here.

Gypsy Ben will face formidable opposition in the six-furlong event and some of the toughest may come from an entry linking O. T. Hogan's Box Man and Precious Gift, the latter owned by Julius Lohn and trainer Jean Brennan.

Reynolds Brother's Old Dudley, coming off two straight victories; E. W. Fanning's Stormy Will and Leroy Sipes' Big Tim, are all regarded as threats.

Completing the field are R. R. Ellison's Balance Sheet, Sam Lasar's Caligua, Earl Kirker's Tudor Jim, Rousseau and McClellan's Picoso, Hi Ko Stables' Mary Jane's Beau and Amanda Holman's Ginger Kay.

Fantastic Career took the lead a furlong from the finish and held on stubbornly to finish in a deadheat with Lady Tramp in the $8,500 feature race at Oaklawn Park Thursday.

Jerry Santage, who was account for his fourth victory of the day, rode Fantastic Career. Mitch Shirola rode Lady Tramp.

Fantastic Career paid $2.60, $2.80 and $2.40. Lady Tramp returned $2.80, $3.20 and $3.00.

A $142.80 daily double payoff resulted when Gus Blass' Broke 'Em All captured the first race and W. A. Lofton's Will Dance scored in the second.

Indians Ease Past Murry

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State University's Wayne Pitcock scored from second on a two-out single by Robert Wortsmith as the Indians eased past Murry State of Murray, K., 6-5 here Thursday.

Pitcock scored in the bottom of the ninth inning after Murry State had scored four runs in the top of the inning to tie the game.

ASU is now 3-1. The two teams play a single game this afternoon and a doubleheader Saturday.

For the third year straight Ben Edwards has bagged his wild turkey gobbler. This year he shot a 22 pounder in the DeAnn area.

Another Cage Player Shuns the Olympics

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Don May, who led the Dayton Flyers to the National Invitation Tournament championship, has withdrawn from the Olympic basketball team tryouts, citing physical exhaustion.

There Are Many Kinds Of Breast Cancers

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

 Q—How many kinds of breast cancer are there?
What is the medullary kind?

 A—Scirrhous breast cancer primarily involves the connective tissue; adenomatous, the glandular tissue; medul-lary, the deep central portion;
and Paget's disease, the nipples. A more useful classification is type A (fast-growing tumors in women under
40) and type B (slow-growing tumors in women over 40).
These ages are relative, not absolute—type A is occasionally seen in women who are over 40.

 Q—How does a woman get breast cancer? What are the symptoms? Could a teen-ager get it?

 A—The cause and manner of getting a breast cancer is unknown. A tumor that can be felt with the flat of the hand (not just the finger tips) is the only early symptom.
Other means of early detection include scanning after giving a woman a radioisotope, scanning by means of infrared photography for areas of increased body heat and X ray (mammography).
Cancer of the breast in girls who are under 15 is practic-

 Duplicate bridge rewards skill more than rubber bridge and the team-of-four match based on International Match Point or IMP scoring is the most skillful form of duplicate, but even in this game there is a tremendous luck factor.

 Today's hand decided a recent IMP match when one North-South pair bid six spades and the other stopped at game.

 The luck factor is represented by the queen of clubs.
 Move it to the East hand in place of one of the small clubs and the slam bidders would have lost the match. The swing involved in the location of this club queen was 750 points each way or a total of 1,500. Translated it meant 26
 IMPs total.

 The hand caused considerable argument. The winning team claimed that the slam contract was more likely to succeed than to go down because it would make any time West held the club queen or when West held five small clubs so that the queen would drop on the first club lead. Obviously correct dummy technique would be for declarer to draw trumps, cash one of dummy's high clubs to check on the possibility of a singleton queen and then to fall back on the club finesse.

 The losing side admitted this but pointed out that East just might have been able to ruff an opening club or diamond lead.

 Our own opinion is that the slam was just about as close to being an even money proposition as you will ever find and that a small amount of overbidding by the winning North and South had paid off this time. Next time it may not.

How to help your boy on collection day!

 When your carrierboy comes to collect, please make sure you're ready. With the right change, if possible, he'll appreciate it with a broad smile and a "Thank you."
 You see, because he is in business for himself, your newspaperboy depends on the full collection of his route for his full profit.
 Repeat calls mean extra work with no extra profit. So—give the boy a break. And thanks!

QUICK QUIZ

Q—What is the origin of the word "brunch"?
A—The word was coined in Great Britain from the words breakfast and lunch. It has become a form of entertainment and is popular in the United States.

Q—Why was the shamrock selected as the national flower of Eire?
A—Because, according to legend, St. Patrick made use of the three small leaves of the shamrock to illustrate the doctrine of the Trinity.

A Closer Walk With God

Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

HE BLESSED the CHILDREN

As naturally as the flower turns its face to the sun, so does the human child respond to the love and grace of God... they know He loves them.

Jesus, who knew the Father's heart, said to some good people of His time — "Let the little children come unto me and forbid them not."

Surely no woman or man would detour a child in his natural search for God and goodness. Take them to church... show them the way... the Master still commands us. They may be ours for a few short years.

They are His forever. How important then to introduce them to Jesus.

Here they meet Him, know Him and love Him, for such is the Kingdom of God.

HAVE FAITH IN GOD

Come let us go into the House of the Lord

If your church is to be a going concern, it must have church-going members. Sponsors listed below urge you to attend services this week.

Foreign Aid Bill Snared in Committee
WASHINGTON (AP) - The Johnson administration - its guns and butter pledges exposed to partisan fire by a Treasury official's statement - also is snared in a Vietnam-related impasse over its $3 billion foreign-aid request.
The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has suspended consideration of the foreign-aid bill until Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford agrees to testify in public on its military-aid provisions, which involved $420 million.
Hager, speaking in East Germany, singled out Forestry Minister Josef Smrkovsky, a leading Czech liberal and a candidate for the vacant post of president, as one of those who are "filling the West with hope that Czechoslovakia will be pulled into the maelstrom."
The Hager speech stirred spread indignation here. One party source called it "a sneak attack," and another highly placed informant commented: "If they wanted to enter into public polemics with us we are ready, although we always wanted to avoid such a thing."

PRAGUE (AP) - The Central Committee of the Czechoslovak Communist party opened an historic meeting today to debate sweeping political and economic reforms.
The meeting began on the heels of an unprecedented East German attack on the new, liberalizing movement here which provoked a stiff Czech protest.
The 110 members of the Central Committee were handed the draft of a bulky "action program" that envisages full individual freedoms for Czech citizens, political changes that will include "no confidence" votes against the government and an economic policy that borrows heavily from the West.
Among those attending the meeting in the ornate 18th Century Spanish Hall of Prague Castle were reformist party leader Alexander Dubcek and Stalinist Antonin Novotny, whom Dubcek ousted from the party leadership in January and from the presidency last week.
As committee members gathered, the Czech news agency CTK announced that the committee's preklum had recommended Gen. Ludvik Svoboda, 72, as Novotny's successor as president. The choice will be made Saturday by the National Front, which includes the Communist party, the Socialist party and the (Catholic) People's party.
Today's rush of political developments almost eclipsed the angry row between Czechoslovakia and East Germany over criticism of the trend toward "Socialist democracy" here. Some Czechs called the criticism as "a hostile act against the Czechoslovak people."
Foreign Minister Vaclav David summoned East German Ambassador Peter Florin to the Czech foreign ministry Wednesday night, CTK said, and notified him of an "official objection" to statements that "reflected on Czechoslovakia and a member of the Czechoslovak government."
The East German attack and the Czech response were believed without precedent in Eastern Europe and added fresh impetus to the growing tensions between Czechoslovakia and its more orthodox neighbors in the Soviet bloc.
The dispute stemmed from a speech by Kurt Hager, secretary of the East German Communist Party's Central Committee, critical of the trend toward democratization in Czechoslovakia.

Flyers and Rangers Are More Secure

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Philadelphia Flyers and New York Rangers are considerably more secure about their spots in the National Hockey League standings today than they were 24 hours ago.

Philadelphia took a long stride towards clinching the expansion West Division title by blanking St. Louis 2-0 Thursday. New York, meanwhile, virtually locked up second place in the East with a 5-4 triumph over Boston. Detroit dropped Chicago 3-1 in the only other NHL game Thursday.

Rookie Doug Favell kicked out 24 shots as the Flyers took a two-point lead over Los Angeles in the West. Philadelphia has two games remaining and LA one. Los Angeles would have to win its game while the Flyers lost their last two for the Kings to cop the West championship.

Favell, who recorded his fourth shutout, protected a 1-0 edge provided by Gary Dornhoefer's second period goal until Andre Lacroix hit in the final minute of play.

The Flyers beat Glenn Hall, who had shut them out the night before, and prevented the fourth place Blues from clinching a playoff berth. St. Louis remained three points ahead of Pittsburgh with both teams having two games left.

The Rangers boosted their second-place edge in the East to four points over the Bruins with two games to play. New York would have to lose both remaining games while Boston swept its two for the Bruins to finish second.

Don Marshall and Reg Fleming each scored twice as the Rangers rushed to 5-1 lead against Boston and then withstood a furious Bruin rally.

Frank Mahovlich hit twice as Detroit dropped Chicago and virtually insured the Black Hawks of no better than a fourth place finish in the East. Chicago trails Boston by three points with two games remaining.

Phil Esposito, with a goal and assist, ran his season's scoring total to a Boston record 81 points.

Mahovlich's two goals gave him seven in 11 games since coming to the Red Wings in the eight-player trade that sent Norm Ullman to Toronto.

Gordie Howe of Detroit, tied for second place with Esposito in the scoring race, remained three points back of Chicago's Stan Mikita, the leader. Mikita and Howe each picked up one assist.

Students Help Classmate

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP)—Students at Grand Junction Central High School collected $532 to aid Ron Hall, paralyzed last November in a scholastic wrestling accident.

The money was raised during a school assembly at which students paid to throw pies at teachers. The results were filmed and sent to Halsey at the Craig Rehabilitation Center in Denver.

Bobby Going Great Among College Set

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT
Associated Press Writer
IN THE WEST WITH KENNEDY (AP) — "Bobby" is what's happening on campus.

The quadangle and the basketball court are the forums Robert F. Kennedy has chosen for the launching of his campaign to snatch the Democratic presidential nomination from Lyndon B. Johnson.

By tonight he will have barnstormed through a dozen campuses west of the Mississippi since declaring himself a candidate two weeks ago.

All but one of his formal appearances—as opposed to shopping center, airport and street corner rallies—have been before enthusiastic thousands of students.

They're demanding that he "tell it like it is," and he is responding vigorously, giving some answers they like and some they do not.

Kennedy needs 1,312 delegates when the Democratic National Convention gathers five months hence to nominate a candidate. Few, if any of those delegates are likely to be a college student.

Why the campus, then? There are several reasons, in the New York Democrat's case:

—Since his days as attorney general, in the Cabinet of brother John, he has always had remarkable rapport with young people. He speaks best when he is with them.

—With his candidacy announced out of the blue, it fell upon his staff to generate big crowds fast. The campus was a natural choice.

—Kennedy believes the students, as the most vocal and emotional segment of American society, will play a major role in prodding delegates to break tradition and throw the nomination his way.

—The students' boisterousness and enthusiasm are impressive on television and in the newspapers, helping Kennedy to reach an audience far beyond the ivied walls. And he needs all the publicity he can get.

—Kennedy wanted to prove that Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, who also is waging a youth-oriented campaign, hadn't captured all the young hearts.

For a figure as controversial as Kennedy is, the response on campus has been decidedly one-sided in his favor. His campaign keynote—to throw out the Johnson policies in Vietnam, stop the bombing and get to the negotiating table—is what the students want to hear.

But Robert Francis Kennedy is what they come out to see. To evaluate his effectiveness on campus, an observer does not listen closely to his speeches. He walks around the hall and watches the faces.

The dominant expression is one of hopeful attentiveness to every word and gesture. Their lips are parted, their eyes wide. They have been waiting for something. Maybe this is it.

They cheer when he says he understands those who conscientiously object to serving in Vietnam, and when he says, "If that's what your conscience tells you to do, then you have to do it."

But they become confused when he adds: "But you must do it."

But they become confused when he adds: "But you must be prepared to face the legal consequences."

They cheer when he says he would like to abolish the draft; but many jeer when he adds: "But not now, with a war going on. I think we should draft by lottery. And student deferments should be abolished."

The United States ranks fourth in world population.

McCarthy May Smash LBJ in Wisconsin

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Reports reaching Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's headquarters from Wisconsin predict Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy will score a smashing victory over President Johnson in Tuesday's presidential primary.

At least that's the way workers in Kennedy's Washington headquarters are interpreting the reports. Precisely what would constitute a smashing victory is a question that goes unanswered.

There's a chance that the Kennedy people are reading into the reports what they want to see.

With Kennedy's name absent from the Wisconsin ballot, the word at Kennedy headquarters is "root for Gene."

But not for long. Starting with the Indiana primary May 7, the word at Kennedy headquarters will change to "beat Gene"—and beat him badly.

Kennedy's name will be on a presidential primary ballot for the first time in Indiana. His opponents will be Gov. Roger Brannigan, running as a stand-in for President Johnson, and McCarthy.

While the Kennedy strategists speak no evil of the Minnesota senator, whose New Hampshire victory demonstrated President Johnson's political vulnerability, they don't expect McCarthy to be in the race when the Democratic convention opens in Chicago Aug. 26.

And they would like to see him out of the race before the May 28 Oregon primary.

The Oregon primary and the California primary a week later are the keystones of the strategy evolved by the former New Frontiersmen running the Kennedy drive.

If Kennedy is to sway delegates away from the incumbent president, he must win in both Oregon and California. This task will become immeasurably easier if McCarthy is out of the race.

As the Kennedy men seek out delegates across the nation, they are running into two obstacles: Timing and the president.

Kennedy's late entry into the race caught a portion of his potential support already committed to delegate states pledged to President Johnson, either directly or through a stand-in. This situation is graphically illustrated in California where the Johnson state pledged to Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch was made up before Kennedy announced—indeed it was made up when Kennedy was still insisting he wouldn't run.

Many of the delegation members who signed pledges to support Lynch and through him the President, would have supported Kennedy had they known he planned to enter the race. So when a Kennedy slate was drawn up some weeks later, some of its members turned out to be wives or husbands or members of the Lynch slate.

Abrams' Visit Is Shrouded in Secrecy

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Relative secrecy surrounds Gen. Creighton W. Abrams' Washington visit, generally considered a prelude to an announcement he will succeed Gen. William C. Westmoreland in Vietnam.

The 53-year-old Abram, Westmoreland's top deputy arrived unannounced Monday night and his presence went largely unnoticed until a newsmen spotted him in a Pentagon hallway Tuesday.

Although the Defense Department didn't say so immediately, Abrams had just returned from a White House lunch with President Johnson.

Confirming his presence later, the Pentagon said the four-star Army general was in Washington to report on plans to strengthen and modernize the South Vietnamese army.

Abrams has been mentioned prominently as the officer who will fill Westmoreland's shoes by July 2 when the present Vietnam commander becomes Army chief of staff.

The White House shed little additional light later in confirming that Abrams saw the President along with unnamed "senior advisers" and would be in Washington a day or two.

It was learned at the Pentagon that Abrams conferred with new Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford, Chairman Earle G. Wheeler of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, retiring Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson and others.

Some administration officials speculated that the President—who often has displayed a penchant for surprise—had secretly whisked Abrams to Washington for a surprise announcement of the new command change.

As one administration spokesman put it: "If the President decides Abe's the guy and now's the time, he may bring him out tomorrow for a press conference announcement—and we won't know in advance."

It wasn't necessary for the President to bring the stocky, former Army vice-chief of staff home to size him up. In assigning Abrams 10 months ago to go to Vietnam as Westmoreland's principal aide, Johnson gave him a notable send-off before reporters at the White House.

The President has conferred with Abrams privately on several occasions in war council sessions both at the White House and in the Pacific.

In view of speculation about Abrams' future, the Pentagon's prelude to an announcement he will succeed Gen. William C. Westmoreland in Vietnam, seemed rather strained.

"One of his major duties in Vietnam has been his association with the Army of the Republic of Vietnam (ARVN)," the Defense Department told inquirers.

Son of Pole Official Is Arrested

By MARTIN ZUCKER
Associated Press Writer
WARSAW, Poland (AP) —

The son of a Polish government official has been arrested and accused of organizing a recent student demonstration for greater freedom, a Warsaw newspaper reports.

In addition, two more members of the faculty of Warsaw University, one a prominent former diplomat, have been listed with those linked to the unrest as the government continued its campaign to pin the blame for student demonstrations on intellectuals and Zionists.

The newspaper Kurier Polski said Tuesday that Andrzej Neumark, son of the director of the cabinet in the Culture Ministry, had organized a demonstration at Warsaw Medical School March 11.

The newspaper criticized the youth's father, Stanislaw Neumark, saying he continuously fought with his subordinates at the Culture Ministry.

Prof. Juliusz Katz-Suchy and Assistant Prof. Krzysztof Pomian of Warsaw University were named with a number of others who had been accused previously of having encouraged revisionist, oppositionist thinking among students.

Six professors and assistants were purged from the university staff Monday. Twelve persons have been

Brother of LBJ Sees a Tough Race

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's brother, Sam, thinks there's a tough election campaign ahead and that Lyndon "will run rather than walk."

Sam Houston Johnson, 54, seldom seen or heard in public, has joined the Johnson family in the White House and aims to help the President "all the way I can"—and to "keep out of trouble myself."

He says he'd like to see the President "get out there and talk about the issues—and defend himself."

"Everybody enjoys a good, clean fight," said Sam in a rare interview during which he mentioned that brother Lyndon is too busy with problems of his presidential office to devote as much time as he ordinarily would to a campaign.

Tall, lanky and possessor of a Texas twang much like his brother's, Sam Houston recalls many of Lyndon's campaigns. He predicted this one "won't be as tough as '64' or 1948, when Lyndon first won a Senate seat by just 87 votes.

Sam, once privately described by his brother as "the smartest politician in the family," shrugged off questions about what role he might play in any Johnson bid for re-election.

But it was learned he has a desk at Democratic National Committee headquarters. And a longtime associate said it's safe to say that if campaign strategy is being mapped, Sam Houston is among those at the drawing board.

Despite his relative anonymity, Sam once was well known in Washington—as Capitol Hill aide to his brother and later as a Democratic Policy Committee staffer.

Sam has been living in the White House since attending Lynda Johnson's Robb's wedding last December. He said he's lived off and on with Lyndon two-thirds of his life.

Living in the White House is "historically nice," he says. "But it's not the most convenient place to live in."

And brother Lyndon is likely "to come in and cut your light out."

"He's been doing that to me for 30 years," Sam said, recalling his brother's oft-repeated taunt: "Sam Houston, are you working for the power company or me?"

Sam, the President's only brother in a family of five children, studied law and says he went to four colleges—San Marcos, University of Houston, University of Texas and Cumberland Law School. He worked in Lyndon's Senate office until he broke his right leg in an accident. Osteomyelitis set in, Sam said, and four inches of bone had to be removed from the leg. That's when he retired.

Twice-married and twice-divorced, he has been living with a sister in Austin, Tex., in recent years. He has a son and daughter by his first marriage.

Sam said he came to the White House to work on gathering the President's private papers for the Johnson presidential library.

Through the years, Sam noted, he has had such titles as "the congressman's brother," "vice president's brother" and now "the President's brother."

"You guess what my title will be next January," he suggested with a chuckle.

purged by the government since the student demonstrations began March 8. Ten of them are believed to be Jews.

Five of those purged lost their government posts after their sons and daughters were accused of being leaders of the student demonstrations.

In another development, the state-controlled newspaper Zycie Warszawy published Tuesday a 15-point declaration by student demonstrators of human rights violations by the Communist regime.

But the newspaper included a government rebuttal to each of the students' points, which amounted to an expression of general dissatisfaction with overbearing government controls.

In Berlin, Edward Holmes, 23, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a Slavic language student in Krakow, Poland for the past 8½ months, said he had been questioned by Polish police off and on for 48 hours after his arrest last Thursday night before he was escorted to the German border and expelled Sunday.

He said he was accused of improper behavior at a student demonstration.

But he added: "I did nothing but look, along with everyone else that was there."

LONG LOOK is experienced by a Japanese boy peeking through a 1,000mm lens on display at a Tokyo camera show.

Secret Meets Illegal, WR Reminds

You can charge this up to Lyndon Johnson, real boss of the IRS — with an equal indictment of the Democratic majority in the Senate. Our senators stood pat on protection of industrial bonds last Tuesday. I don't have the roll call on yesterday's reverse action, but Fulbright had been called back to Arkansas for speeches, as other Senate friends of industrial bonds may have been — and it appears at this writing that someonedid a piece of strategic timing in calling for that second vote yesterday.

Inventions come and go — but the validity of the printed page never was greater than it is today.

The coming of radio was supposed to pronounce the death knell of newspaper advertising. Then the invention of television was expected to kill radio. All of which has turned out to be nonsense. Radio was hurt for a while after TV appeared, but radio has bounced back in high gear — and in the entire communications advertising field newspapers are still definitely No. 1.

Here are the preliminary figures from the Bureau of Advertising on 1967 sales:

Newspapers $4.92 billions; television $2.999 billions; magazines $1.281 billions; radio $1.03 billions — and outdoor advertising $180 millions.

AIDC Agency Is Same One

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Industrial Development Commission listened to the presentations of five advertising firms Thursday and then awarded a contract to handle its advertising to Cranford-Johnson & Associates of Little Rock.

Cranford-Johnson has had the contract for the past four years. The firm will handle all but $10,000 of the $150,000 the commission has budgeted for the 1968-69 fiscal year.

Fact Is If You Stay Here Long Enough You Just Got to Get Old

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Youth is a bonfire of the spirit. Everyone dislikes the idea of being thought of as old, even though he sometimes acts as if he were more antique than Methuselah, who dwelt among us for 969 years.

Though our bones begin to creak and the doctor frowns more often and prescribes more diets and pills and potions, all of us aspire to hang on to youth, as though it were in itself a guarantee of immortality.

You can't fight city hall, where your actual birth date is registered, but that's a mundane and inaccurate way to tell your true age anyway. The real question isn't how old you've gotten but how young you still are.

What is your youth quotient? Well, you're still young enough at heart to enjoy life if—

Children under the age of 10 recognize you as a boon companion and like to play games with you.

You think miniskirts look fine on at least one out of three girls who wear them.

Now and then you have a yearning to encompass all knowledge, to know everything there is to be known in the whole wide, wounded and wonderful world.

Instead of daydreaming about your funeral plans, you daydream about what it would be like to be aboard the first passenger spacecraft to the moon.

You'd rather take a chance on something new and exciting than lean on a tried and true crutch.

When you're shaving, you still make faces at yourself in the mirror, and when you take a shower, you still like to make the steam-wet walls echo with a song.

At an Elks' Club luncheon all the other guys drop by your table to tell you a story or hear your latest.

While listening to the telecast of a pro football game, you can understand at least a fourth of the technical gibberish the sports announcer employs.

At least one neighbor is jealous because of the enthusiastic way his wife takes your hands in hers when you meet.

You use your birthday anniversaries as happy excuses to throw luncheon larks rather than as occasions for either personal dirges or enforced tributes from your younger colleagues.

During the last sad rites for a departed acquaintance, you don't spend most of the ceremony looking around the cemetery to see if you can't find a better final resting place for yourself.

You have at least half as many friends whose calendar age is younger than yours as you do friends who are older.

At this very moment you're suffering more from spring fever than rheumatism.

If these things are true of you, stay in there and keep pitching. You're young enough to get a kick out of living—and may yet get your face slapped for saying the right thing to the wrong lady at a cocktail party.

This was the scene last night as the Kiwanis Club staged its annual Minstrel Show before a large crowd at Hope City Hall. The second performance is scheduled for 8 o'clock tonight. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and every penny is used by the Club on local youth programs.

Senate Changes Vote, Industrial Bond Tax Exemption Out Jan. 1

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate heads toward a final vote on a three-point taxes and spending-cut bill after rejecting a section to freeze federal public works projects.

It also reversed itself Thursday and voted to go along with the Treasury Department's ruling to end tax exemptions on industrial development bonds, effective Jan. 1.

After five days of debate, the Senate was due to vote today on the over-all bill, which would extend auto and telephone excise taxes at current rates, apply a 10 per cent surcharge to income taxes and cut federal spending by about $6 billion.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Dei., who co-sponsored the surcharge-spending cut amendment, said Democrats have demonstrated they aren't serious about spending reductions which affect public works projects back home.

He told a newsmen this is making some Republicans reconsider whether they will support the surcharge proposal, which President Johnson wants.

The Senate voted 42 to 37 to eliminate from the package bill the freeze on public works projects.

Supporting the move were 38 Democrats and 4 Republicans; opposed were 12 Democrats and 25 Republicans.

The auto and telephone excises which would be extended at present rates by the bill will drop automatically at midnight Sunday.

But the Internal Revenue Service said it will continue to collect them at the higher rates since it was virtually certain Congress would extend them retroactively.

Senate and House leaders have tentatively arranged a conference on the legislation for Monday.

The Senate continued Thursday on its merry way adding extraneous amendments to the bill.

It dealt the administration a stiff defeat by adopting 48 to 25 an amendment by Sen. Peter H. Domicick, R-Colo., aimed at European countries which still owe billions in World War I debts to the United States.

Under it, the United States would decline to redeem in gold the dollars held by such countries but would credit the amount of dollars against the debts.

Dedication of Water District

Speakers at Friday's dedication of the water supply facility to the Nekosoa, Edwards Paper Mill at Ashdown include Sen. John L. McClellan, Ross D. Davis, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Development; R. R. Morrison, director of the Southwestern Area Economic Development Administration.

Also on the program Friday night in the Ashdown High School auditorium will be R. E. Collins, manager of the Nekosoa-Edwards mill, E. E. Cowling, Mayor of Ashdown, Marlon Crank and the Rev. Tommy Hall.

A band concert by the Ashdown High School Band will precede the program at 8:15 p.m. Mr. Crank will be master of ceremonies and the Rev. Mr. Hall will give the invocation at 7 p.m. Mayor Cowling will welcome visitors.

The major address of the night will be given by Secretary Davis, Senator McClellan.

The day's agenda calls for the water valves to be officially opened for the first flow to the Ashdown plant.

Cong Claims Downing Costly Plane

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam claimed today that its armed forces had shot down a F111, the controversial new U.S. airplane which tasted combat for the first time this week. U.S. authorities had reported earlier one of the $6 million plane was overdue after a mission.

The North Vietnamese claim, heard in a Hanoi broadcast monitored in Tokyo, said the supersonic swing-wing aircraft had been "shattered down" Thursday over Ha Tinh Province about 100 miles northwest of the demilitarized zone near the Laos border.

The broadcast made no mention of the fate of the two-man crew.

Asked about the Hanoi claim, a U.S. spokesman said: "I can't comment on it. I can't confirm or deny it. As far as I'm concerned, a plane is overdue."

One senior U.S. military official did not rule out the possibility when asked before the Hanoi announcement whether the plane might have been shot down.

"We have no evidence of that at all," he said. "It's a new aircraft. We have no way of knowing yet."

Six of the F111s, capable of speeds of more than twice the speed of sound with bomb loads greater than any other U.S. plane except the B52 Stratofortress.

Memphis Is Under Guard After Riots

By BILL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —

Troop-protected firetrucks and stringent police patrols kept guard on Memphis today, but fires flickered sporadically in the wreckage left by a riot which claimed one life.

The violence began on historic Beale Street Thursday morning when a march by 6,000 Negroes led by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in support of striking garbage collectors turned into a riot and continued through the day and night despite a tightly enforced curfew.

Another possible confrontation between marchers and police was expected today with Negro leaders saying they would stage another march—this one limited to sidewalks like those held almost daily since the city's sanitation workers struck Feb. 12.

Only police, state trooper and National Guard vehicles moved on the major streets during the night, but the alleys and back streets were alive with youths darting forth to set fires and stone firetrucks.

At midnight, a fire department spokesman said 148 fire alarms had been turned in from the downtown area. Later in the morning, a two-alarm blaze was reported at a feed mill, the second blaze there during the night.

National Guardsmen, riding on the firetrucks, prevented serious interference, however, and firefighters had most of the blazes out in short order.

A more serious threat was a sniping incident when five shots were fired at police officers stationed at the intersection of Beale Street and Hernando Avenue—the day's main trouble spot.

Policemen put on bulletproof vests, and National Guardsmen with sniper scopes moved into the areas. Police elected not to press the search for the sniper, and no further shots were reported.

Thursday's march began as a peaceful demonstration, and both its leaders and police authorities said the violence was the work of a splinter group of Negro youths.

Frank Holloman, Memphis police director, said the trouble started when 200 youths separated from the main group and went on a window breaking and looting binge. Police retaliated with clubs and riot gas.

In the struggle that followed and continued through the night, a 16-year-old Negro, Larry Payne, was shot to death, more than 150 arrests were made, and at least 50 persons were injured — including five shot and one stabbed.

Police said Payne was shot and killed sometime after the march was broken up. Holloman said he was told Payne was shot after charging an officer with a butcher knife when the youth was caught looting.

Delighted With Progress of School

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Curtis R. Swain, chairman of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools' Arkansas State Committee, announced Thursday that the NCA was "delighted with the progress of the North Little Rock School District."

North Little Rock's schools had been threatened with a suspension of accreditation in 1967. The NCA cited what it called a long list of discrepancies including lack of community support, crowded classrooms and difficulty between the School Board and the administration.

The full NCA accrediting committee granted the district a one-year reprieve last year.

"North Little Rock had the evidence to show that they mean business," Swain said. "It makes you feel good to see a community make up its mind that schools are important and that they will maintain them that way."
